

Dear family,

Santa asked me to arrive early this year so we can all stay safe during Covid.

I'm so excited to spend more time with you!

As a reminder, each night I fly back to the North Pole to report your behavior to Santa so remember to be good!

Each day when I return, I will find a new hiding place :) Remember not to touch me or my magic will flee!

Love,

